really two men and that through him they have solved the mysterious thefts of at least twenty valuable horses and wagons. Knost to-day was held for trial by Magistrate Marsh, in Morrisania Police Court, on a charge of burgiary.

Knost's arrest followed that of his nephew, Fritz Roesch, on Feb. 13, after he had forced his way into the stable of Charles Buckenmeier, at No. 607 Wales avenue. Roesch confessed to Detectives Sullivan and McGrath and implicated his uncle.

The detective questioned Knost so ider.

KILLS SELF IN HIS SALOON Pariner Wandered Away For

As a release from what he called th cruelty of the world. Isaac Kemelhor, proprietor of a saloon at No. 588 Lenez avenue, killed himself there to-day with the aid of a rubber tube and a gas stove. He left his home. No. 588 Jefferson street, Brooklyn, at 4 o'clock this morning and went to his anloon, but did not open it for business.

The dead man left a letter addressed to his wife in which he bade her, her father and their four children good-by, wishing them all success in a world that had been only cruel to him.

Kemelhor's partner, Paul Dabow, disappeared last. Saturday and an elarm was sent out for him. He went to have an examination made of his eye, which he feared was failing in sympathy with the other, which was signifiess, and he has not been seen since.
